HAKKIMDA

I am a passionate software developer with 5 years of experience, specializing primarily in frontend development. Throughout my career, I have built numerous projects focused on creating clean, efficient, and user-friendly interfaces. While my main expertise lies in frontend technologies, I have also developed backend projects using frameworks like NestJS and Django.

Born in 1994, I am highly motivated and truly dedicated to continuous learning and growth in the software field. My strong technical knowledge, combined with my enthusiasm for creating impactful digital experiences, drives me to deliver high-quality solutions in every project I undertake.

WORKS

DEVELOPER

Digital Cosmonot

I work on developing frontend projects and provide consultancy services for API Gateway integration and optimization.

FRONTEND DEVELOPER

Dubertas (07/2024 - 11/2024)

As a Frontend Developer, I created user-friendly web interfaces and built a type-safe admin panel with React. I prioritized writing clean, reusable, and maintainable code. Despite working remotely, I maintained strong and effective communication with my team.
